Shri Shantadurga Vijayte

Om Namo Bhagavate Vasudevaya

Om Mahan Shakti Devataya Namah

Shri Krishna Leelavali book was the starting point for my sister who read about P.P. Tai and some of the experiences of the devotees in this book, during a visit to India. When she returned to US, she told me about this and we tried to find out as much information as we could about Lord Krishna and P.P. Tai. We came across the krishnaleela.org website which had loads of information and answered a lot of our questions. I was very happy to find out that there was a Krishna Kendra very close to my residence and was pleased to meet Abhi and Sonia Kanitkar who held the Kendra in their home. Within a few months, I had started to feel a strong pull towards Lord Krishna and any doubts in my mind would be cleared instantly. I would look forward to going to the Kendra every week.

I had requested Abhi during my early visits if I could borrow a copy of the book "ShriKrishna Leelavali". But he had lent his copy to some other devotee attending the Kendra. After a couple of months, Abhi told me that he had received another copy of the book and gladly gave it to me. I was very happy to get this book and began reading immediately.

While reading, I found P.P. Tai's photo inside the book. She was sitting on a chair and was smiling. I was completely drawn to this picture. I emailed Abhi and asked him if he had another such picture that he could give me to keep in my home. He told me that neither did the picture belong to him nor did he see any picture of P.P. Tai in the book when he gave it to me. We both were surprised and elated to find out that P.P. Tai's photo had miraculously appeared in this book. I welcomed Tai in my home and immediately placed her picture on the altar.

After a few months, my parents made a brief visit to US. Before leaving for India, my mother gave me the Krishna Kutir idol photo of Lord Krishna which was lying in her purse and it had slipped her mind that she had it. I was amazed to see this picture because I had not told my mother to bring it. I had always prayed to Lord Krishna that I wanted him to come to our home and bless us. Lord Krishna knows what is in our hearts and blesses us.
