

Prakash Gadgil, Thane, Mumbai

I had long association with P.P. Tai who told me once to do Saptashati Pathan at Krishna Kutir, Badlapur on one of the day in Navratri & subsequently every year & even now I continue to do so.

I planned my visit along with wife to my son at L.A. in USA in the month of June 2012 & decided to undertake visit to Vishwajanani Temple at Pasadena, L.A. & do Shaptashati Pathan in the temple.

During my visit I contacted Mr. Pramod Gad of L.A., the Lord Krishna devotee who spoke to Panditji of the temple & got the permission for Saptashati Pathan. Panditji was kind enough to open the temple quite early on Sunday 17th June 2012 & allowed my family to enter & do the needful. I offered Rose flowers to each of the deity in the temple through Panditji & started Puja, Prayer & Saptashati Pathan. After about an hour we heard the sound & found the flower placed over the head of Vishwajanani Navdurga fell down. We were quite happy that Goddess gave us blessings. I completed the Saptashati Pathan before other devotees entered the temple.

Panditji was kind enough to give me the said flower as Prasad. We could feel lot of vibrations in the temple.

I was very much touched after recollecting somewhat similar experience discussed by Narkar Kaka that.....When P.P. Tai installed Navdurga Idol as Vishwajanani in Ma Durga Temple at Monrovia, L.A. on 1st day of Navratri on 7th October 2002, she offered 7 white Carnation flowers, placed 3 on the right & 3 on the left side of the Idol & 1 over the head as advised by Lord Krishna. Being Navaratri, Tai visited temple daily & offered her prayers to Vishwajanani & did meditation. On the 3rd day i.e. 9th October 2002, the flower from the head fell down in the hand of P.P. Tai while offering prayers & Vishwajanani spoke to Lord Krishna. P.P. Tai had shown the flower (it was looking very fresh as seen in the photo) to devotees present in the temple & spoke about the conversation between Lord Krishna & Vishwajanani. The text of the conversation along with the photo is appeared in this website, if one click on Vishwajanani link. Our experience was blessings from Devi & earlier gave the message to all Devotees.

To our surprise 2 Sadhus were carrying Lord Krishna Idol in the hand when we entered the Aircraft in our return journey to Mumbai & we had very comfortable travel in presence of Lord Krishna.
